MEMORANDUM TO COUNSEL

Interventions are sought by persons allegedly in occupation of service station sites that were the subject of a sale authorized by the court. The purchaser at the sale also seeks to intervene, attempting to resolve controversies arising after the sale. Briefing is incomplete. A prompt resolution of disputes is apparently desirable, however, regardless of the merits and whether the court has continuing jurisdiction. If use of a magistrate judge for mediation purposes would be helpful, any party in interest may informally advise the court so that arrangements may be initiated.
